Founders of ADATS are also a part of the Fair Climate Network ... Founders of ADATS are also a part of the Fair Climate Network (FCN - <http://www.fairclimate.com/>) which is working to ensure that CDM / Carbon Sales can be made to work for development projects for the poor. They endeavor to help anybody who is trying to implement such projects. There has to be much greater debate and discourse on CDM, its relation to development, its role in addressing climate change - and when and how can it be a source of financing that really empowers the people who are least responsible for climate change.
